

End of the 2010-2011 campaign on the prevention of racism

The 2010 – 2011 campaign of the project Empowerment of the migrants against racism came to an end on Monday, October 17th, 2011.

The discussions went very well in the shelters of the Migrant Welfare Service (EVAM) and were greatly appreciated by the inhabitants as well as the majority of the social workers.

They were also extended to other migrants during the intercultural meetings.

The project also received a favorable echo with other municipalities that exchanges have been established with, for a transfer purpose.

Empowerment of the migrants against racism has set the goal to help the migrants better understand the phenomenon of racism and give them information on how to react in case of racist attacks

The campaign also provides motivation to the concerned population for maintaining its image in the host society through good reflexes in living together.

The initiative is supported by the Service for Combating Racism of the Federal Department of Home Affairs (SLR - DFI), the Cantonal Office for the integration of foreigners and the prevention of racism (BCI) and the Vaud Migrant Welfare Service (EVAM).

It covers the period from 2010 to 2013.

CO-HABITER, on October 21, 2011